

→ GONK FACTS ←

#1	Gonks are powerful guardians protecting nature, farms and families from potential catastrophes and misfortune.
#2	Gonks like to be rewarded with porridge and butter.
#3	If Gonks are not properly thanked, or faced with rudeness, they can turn into cruel little monsters playing tricks.
#4	Despite being small, Gonks have immense strength... they are 7 times stronger than your average human.
#5	Gonks live in the depths of the forest.
#6	Gonks carry sacks full of presents and unlike Father Christmas they don't go down the chimney, they walk through the front door.
#7	Gonks live for up to 400 years.
#8	Gonks are also known to be the helpers of Santa Claus.
#9	Gonks can run at speeds of 35 miles per hour and have better sight than a hawk.
#10	Gonks are vegetarian and love carrot sticks.
#11	Gonks can leave sweets or rotting potatoes when they visit in the evenings – depending on how that child has behaved on the preceding day.
#12	Gonks love to sing lyrics backwards to confuse humans.
#13	Gonk's plaits can sometimes be used as magical wand cores.
#14	If exposed to sunlight, Gonks turn to stone. They could also transform themselves into logs or stubs.
#15	Gonks are sent on a special mission from the North Pole and instructed by Santa Claus to keep an eye on children's behaviour in the lead up to Christmas.
#16	Salt may also be an efficient means to get rid of a Gonk invasion.
#17	Though Gonks are skilled climbers, jumping is their favourite thing. They can stress and stretch their legs like a spring on a mattress.
#18	The 3.65 million World Gonk Association members meet once a year on Boxing Day.
#19	Gonks protect the animals and the trees of the forests in the winter. Sometimes they walk backwards to confuse hunters and lumberjacks in the snow.
#20	If you don't know who left spilled milk on the table, climbed up the Christmas tree, scattered underwear around the house... you can be almost certain it was a Gonk having fun.
